Thermostat Private Label Program

Private labeling Honeywell Home thermostats is one of the best ways to bring brand recognition to a dealer's business and lets homeowners know who to call for their future HVAC needs. Resideo offers up to three lines of customization for dealers to include their company name, phone number, and Web address. With low minimum order quantities and the option of direct shipment to your customer site, you will quickly see the benefits of the Resideo Private Label Program.

Second Email address may be used to have purchasing agent or someone else notified of part setup approval by Resideo.

Important

The part numbers you set up must be unique to each customer and each product. (e.g. TH8110CMMATRON)
Maximum of 18 characters – uppercase; no spaces (e.g. TH6320WF2003ACME)
Do not use Resideo part number(s) as your customer part number(s). We suggest using a variation such as the examples above.
