

10-YEAR ULTRACLEAN COIL GUARANTEE

The indoor coils are the heart of your heating and cooling equipment.

After time, mold, dust, smoke, grease and other contaminants can begin to build up on the surface of the coils, robbing you of the comfort and efficiency your systems are supposed to provide. When added to your heating and cooling system, the powerful combination of a Honeywell Home Whole-House Electronic Air Cleaner and Ultraviolet (UV) Surface Treatment System help to keep surface mold and other contaminants from growing on your indoor coils, keeping your equipment operating more efficiently for years to come. We guarantee it with our 10-Year UltraClean Coil Guarantee.

Only Resideo UV systems
come with the 10-Year
UltraClean Coil Guarantee

Only Resideo Offers a 10-Year UltraClean Coil Guarantee.

If you purchase and properly maintain your new Honeywell Home Electronic Air Cleaner and Ultraviolet Surface Treatment System, Resideo guarantees that if your indoor coil requires cleaning within the next 10 years, that we will pay 75% of the cost (up to $150) to have it professionally cleaned by a qualified contractor.

With proper installation the UltraClean Coil Guarantee applies to any Honeywell Home:

- Electronic Air Cleaner (EAC)
- Ultraviolet Surface Treatment System (UV)

Proper installation on the EAC includes:

Installation with a heat pump, air conditioner or high efficiency furnace that is:

- Brand new and less than one year old
- More than one year old with the indoor coil professionally cleaned by a qualified contractor prior to installation

Proper maintenance on the EAC includes:

- Keeping power switch in the ON position
- Periodically verify power operation
- Washing electronic cells and ionizing wires periodically
- Changing the pre and post filter as needed

Proper maintenance on the UV Treatment system means:

- Replacing UV lamps annually
